

It's the Scripture, Not the Speaker: How to Engage Your Congregation in God's Word

Pastor Andy Nash

What happens when the sermon is over?

It's about the Scripture, not the Speaker.

2 Timothy 4:1,2 - preach the word - all the time

Inductive study

Choose a book of scripture to study together.

Form a committee to choose creative ways to study together.

Use a good commentary.

Important to present the scripture because of the times we are living in.

2 Timothy 4:3-5

2 Timothy 3:1,2

Who denied the power of Scripture?

What group did Jesus have no time for?

Religious leaders

not Pharisees, but Sadducees - did not respect the authority of scripture.

The word of God is at your door - receive the gift of His word and you will never be alone again.

Andy Nash is an Adventist pastor in Littleton, Colorado, a former professor at Southern Adventist University, author, and columnist for Adventist Review and Thomas Nelson Bibles. He loves inductive Bible study and preaching, believing that church members should leave a sermon thinking about Scripture, not the speaker.

Andy also leads tours every summer to the Holy Land. Learn more at
